Born into the ghetto in nineteen ninety-one
 Just a happy child playing beneath the summer sun
 A vacant lot's his playground, by twelve he's got a gun
 The odds are bet against him, junior don't make twenty-one.

Verse 2:

- Baby I thought you and me would stand the test of time
- Like we got away with the perfect crime
- But we were just a legend in my mind
- I guess that I was blind.
- Remember those nights dancing at the masquerade
- The clowns wore smiles that wouldn't fade
- You and I were renegades
- Some things never change.

It made me so mad 'cause I wanted it bad for us baby
And now it's so sad that whatever we had ain't worth saving.

Verse 2:

She came looking for some shelter
 With a suitcase full of dreams
 To a motel room on the boulevard
 I guess she's trying to be James Dean
 She's seen all the disciples and all the wanna-be's
 No-one wants to be themselves these days.
 Still there's nothing to hold onto but these days.

Verse 3: (%)

Jimmy's shoes busted both his legs
 Trying to learn to fly
 From a second storey window
 He just jumped and closed his eyes
 His mamma said he was crazy, he said "Momma I've got to try
 Don't you know that all my heroes died
 And I guess I'd rather die than fade away."

Verse 2:

I know I promised baby I would be the one
To make our dreams come true.
I ain't too proud of all the struggles and the hard times
We've been through
When this cold world comes between us
Please tell me you'll be brave
'Cause I can realise the danger
When forgiveness fades away.

Verse 3(%):

Pour another cup of coffee babe
I got something to say to you
Well I ain't got the winning ticket
Not the one that's gonna pull us through
No one said that it'd be easy
Let your old man take you home
But know if you walk out on me
That darling I'd be gone.

The image displays a musical score for the song "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. It includes a guitar part (top staff) and a piano part (middle staff). The guitar part features a complex, rhythmic melody with many beamed notes and rests. The piano part provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. Below the piano staff is a guitar tablature (TAB) section, which uses numbers 1-7 to indicate fret positions and 'x' marks to indicate muted notes. The score is written in standard musical notation with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature.

A door slams like a shotgun
 You jump up to your feet
 But it's just the wind that's blowing through Those secrets that we keep
 Made me want to want you
 God knows I need to need you
 By the time this love is over
 I'll be sleeping in the street.

Verse 3 (♯):

I ain't gonna call you
 Or hear you say my name
 And if you see me on the streets
 Don't wave, just walk away
 Our lives are getting twisted
 Let's keep our stories straight
 The more that I resist it
 My temptation turns to fate.

Verse 2:

I'm tired of watching T.V., it makes me want to scream
 Outside the world is burning, man it's hard to believe
 Each day you know you're dying from the cradle to the grave
 I get so numb sometimes that I can't feel the pain.

I can't write a love song the way I feel today
 I can't sing no song of hope I got nothing to say
 Life is feeling kind of strange, it's strange enough these days
 I sing this song to you whoever you are
 As my guitar lies bleeding in my arms.

Verse 3 (♯):

Staring at the paper, I don't know what to write
 I'll have my last cigarette, we'll turn out the lights
 Maybe tomorrow I'll feel a different way
 But here in my confusion I don't know what to say.

I can't write a love song the way I feel today
 I can't sing no song of hope I got nothing to say
 I can't fight the feelings that are burning in my veins
 I send this song to you wherever you are

I drove all night down streets that wouldn't bend
 But somehow they drove me back here once again
 To the place I lost at love, to the place that we called home
 It would all have been so easy if you'd only made me cry
 And told me how you're leaving me to some organ grinder's lullaby.

Verse 3:

Now the sky, it shines a different kind of blue
 And the neighbour's dog don't bark like he used to
 Well me - these days I just miss you; it's the nights I go insane
 Unless you're coming back for me, I know one thing that won't change.

Verse 2:

It's been a long long long long time
 Since I had your love here in my hands
 We didn't understand it, we couldn't understand it
 But nothing's fair in love and hate
 You lay it all down and walk away before it's too late
 We danced all night as the music played
 The sheets got tangled in the mess we made
 There in the stains we remain

Verse 2:

I used to know this Puerto Rican girl who lied to change her life
 She changed her name, her face
 Because the grass looked greener on the other side
 She turned her back, she ran away straight into the night
 Her friends, her family feel the pain but she's the one who cries.

Verse 3 (%):

Say a prayer for Donnie, he died in his room just the other day
 His brother come home, found him dead on the floor
 With a needle in his vein
 The cops come down with a body bag, they said, "Donnie's a casualty"
 I said, "All it's about is the boy checked out, he couldn't handle reality."

Verse 2:

I know I wasn't funny but you laughed at all my jokes
 When I was choking on the words to say you stuck your fingers down my throat
 The first night I said I loved you, you told me to go to hell
 You were giving me head on that creaky old bed at the ol' Duval motel.

Just like everything, even good love has to die
 Ain't no sympathy when it says goodbye.
